A New Year, a New Rhythm: Introducing the Narrative Lectionary

January is often a time for fresh starts. Some people commit to fewer carbs. Some tackle closets. Some just hope to remember where they put the good pens.

As a church, we're also beginning something new. Not a resolution, but a rhythm of walking more intentionally through Scripture.

Starting this month, we'll begin using the Narrative Lectionary. This four-year cycle of readings is designed by professors from Luther Seminary to help us experience the Bible as a unified story from creation to resurrection and beyond. Instead of jumping between books from week to week, we'll follow the story in order, watching God's promises unfold. Through this approach, we'll see Scripture not as scattered moments, but as one sweeping narrative of God's persistent grace.

For the first part of the year, our readings will come from the Gospel of John. John is different from Matthew, Mark, and Luke. Those Gospels tell us what Jesus did. John helps us see who Jesus is. John invites us not only to observe Jesus, but to meet Him, follow Him, and find life in Him.

Near the end of the Gospel, John clearly states his purpose: "These are written so that you may come to believe Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may live in his name." John 20:31. Through stories and signs, John wants us to experience Jesus so that we put our trust in Him.

John will be our companion from now through Easter. I invite you—yes, you—to immerse yourself in this Gospel these next few months. Read along at home. Listen to an audio Bible while you drive. Take notes during worship. Circle the verses that jump out. Argue with the confusing parts (John can handle it). Sit with the promises that steady your soul.

John whispers a simple invitation from Jesus: "Come and see." (John 1:39, NLT) Come and see the One who brings light into our darkness. Come and see the One who knows us completely and loves us fully. Come and see the One who moves into the neighborhood and refuses to leave us alone in the dark. It's an invitation to meet Jesus again, not the Jesus we think we know, but the Jesus who still speaks, still heals, still surprises, and still calls us by name.

Blessings on this new year, this new rhythm, and this new journey of faith

Pastor Rebekah

P.S. Thank you to everyone who shared Christmas cards, treats, and gifts with us this season. Your kindness has been such a bright spot. Jeff and I have felt so loved. We're grateful to be part of a congregation that shows such genuine care. Thank you for blessing us in so many ways. We thank God for you and for the joy of serving together in this community of faith.

With love and appreciation,
Pastor Rebekah & Jeff

Auxiliary Fund – An Investment Fund with RBC

The Auxiliary Fund was created by the Council for the purpose of investing monies held in the Men's, Women's, Soul Food, and Christian Education accounts. The money for these accounts was held in the church's non - interest bearing checking account at Fortifi Bank prior to investing it with RBC.

The funds are only invested in a Money Market. In 2025, the amount invested since its creation in April was $38,564.45. These accounts accrued approximately $600 interest in 2025. The interest will be used for general expenses. The value changes in the Fund as income and expenses for the accounts occur.

All expenses for the above-mentioned accounts are paid from the Auxiliary Fund and monitored by the Finance Committee.

Mission of the Month - Kidsave

At Kidsave, we believe in the potential inside every child. We strive to create change in our world so that all kids, everywhere, grow up in loving, supportive families, connected to caring adults.

Ukraine started with only three Kidsave team members and has since grown to include over 300 selfless volunteers and a fleet of 60 vehicles. These heroes, known as “Angels of Hope” in Ukraine, risk their lives daily to continue to evacuate women, children, and families out of active combat zones and into safety.

Since 2016, Kidsave has been deeply involved in reforming Ukraine’s overburdened child welfare system. With over 100,000 children languishing in institutions, orphanages, and boarding schools across Ukraine, Kidsave stepped in to change the outcome for these kids. When the invasion of Ukraine began in February 2022, our team on the ground moved quickly into action to help rescue and provide aid to those in war torn cities. What began as an operation to get the kids in our programs to safety soon expanded as our team answered the call to help those in danger across Ukraine.

Our programs operate in the U.S. and internationally in Ukraine, Sierra Leone, and Colombia.

Our programs help older kids in foster care and orphanages find meaningful, lasting connections with adults and families. Whether that relationship is with a mentor, a host family, or an adoptive forever family, our kids get a voice and a choice in who they get to know and who becomes their “family.”

Still, countless millions languish in orphanages and foster care. Kidsave’s goal is to be a catalyst for creating much-needed change. Our goal is to inspire governments, communities and individuals to find and provide families and permanent connections for their children. We hope you will join us.

Kidsave...Because every child needs a family.

The Grace Book Club’s book choice for January is “I Shall Not Hate: A Gaza Doctor’s Journey on the Road to Peace and Human Dignity” by Izzeldin Abuelaish.

A Palestinian doctor with a degree from Harvard, Dr. Abuelaish was born and raised in a refugee camp in the Gaza Strip. He has crossed lines in the sand that divide Israelis and Palestinians for most of his life – as a physician and as a humanitarian who sees improved health and education for women as the way forward. When tragedy struck his family on January 16, 2009, he could have sought revenge and hatred, but instead he called for the people of the region to start talking to each other in the hope that the two sides could begin to come together in understanding, respect and peace.

In the words of Elle Wiesel: “This story is a necessary lesson against hatred and revenge.”

We will meet to discuss “I Shall Not Hate” on Tuesday, January 13th at a location to be determined. If you would like to read this book, please contact Cindy Wallace for a copy. If you have already read this book and would like to join us on Jan. 13th for discussion, please do, we would love to have you.

Outside The Box Outlook

The Outside the Box Outlook Committee recently presented the Boys and Girls Club – Berlin with a check for $1,000 for the “Adopt a Family for Christmas”. The gift will provide a Christmas for five to seven families.

We also purchased children’s books for a future program.

Congregational Meeting

The congregational meeting will be on Sunday, February 8, 2026 immediately following worship. This important meeting is an opportunity for all members to gather, reflect on the past year, and look forward to what God has in store for us in the coming year.

We encourage everyone to participate as we elect new people to the church council, discuss ministry goals, budget matters, and other important aspects of our shared life together as a congregation. Your voice matters, and your presence will contribute to the continued health and vitality of our community. Please plan to join us as we celebrate what God has done and look ahead to the opportunities for growth and service in the year ahead.
